

Department C – Horse

Informational Meeting:

Wednesday, July 28 – 4 p.m. Horse exhibitors and parents informational meeting in horse barn.

Judging: Thursday, July 29 – 8:30 a.m. – Halter
Friday, July 30 – 8:30 a.m. – Performance
Saturday, July 31 – 8 30 a.m. – Ranch Horse

Horses shown on Thursday and/or Friday, must be checked in by 6 p.m. on Wednesday and remain on the fairgrounds until livestock release time (Friday, 8 p.m.) The only exception is for Ranch Horse entries that are NOT being shown in any other division (Showmanship, Performance Halter or Western Performance classes). Ranch Horses wishing to compete in the Ranch Conformation class may haul in Thursday morning only for Ranch Conformation then return home until Saturday's Ranch Horse show. If space is available, 4-H members may request stalling for horses specific to the 4-H Ranch Horse division, only if they intend to keep the horse on the fairgrounds for the duration of all 4-H horse shows. These stalls will be assigned at the discretion of the department superintendents.

All stalls must be cleaned to department superintendents' satisfaction or members will be charged a $30 clean out fee per stall.

Rules [Colorado 4-H Horse Show Rule Book and the 4-H Code of Conduct will be followed.]

A. Ownership must be in the exhibitor's name by May 1. Copies of registration papers or 4-H horse identification forms must be approved by the horse department superintendent(s) and the 4-H office by May 1.

B. Lease agreements will be completed on standard 4-H lease forms. These forms are available upon request from the horse superintendent(s) or the 4-H office. Lease agreements must be submitted to the 4-H office by May 1.

C. Colorado State 4-H Horse Show rules will be followed, except youth Level I will be allowed to participate.

D. Pattern books for all classes will be available in the Fair Office no later than Monday of fair week. If available sooner, the patterns may also be posted online.

E. Note: Age breakdowns in all classes will be the same as those in showmanship. Exception: Novice classes will NOT be offered in the ranch horse division.

F. Awards will be presented for champion halter classes, showmanship classes, western performance classes, and ranch horse classes. Showmanship and riding classes will be awarded in their specific division overall; junior, intermediate, senior and novice. Ranch horse classes will be awarded in their specific division overall; junior, intermediate, and senior.

The following point system will be used:

Four or more horses in class: 1st place (10) points; 2nd place (8) points; 3rd place (6) points; 4th place (4) points; 5th place (2) points).

Three or less horses in class: 1st place (6) points; 2nd place (4) points; 3rd place (2) points

Ties for Champion and Reserve Champion Rider will be decided by the highest written test score or a riding maneuver. It will be at the judge's discretion as to which option they prefer to use for the tie breaker.

G. Western Dress Code: Colorado 4-H Horse Show Rule Book Western Dress Code (See section #90- Personal Attire: Western Dress Code) will be followed: In summary, Western hat, cowboy boots, belt, dark blue, dark black or colored jeans or show pants (acid or stone washed jeans are not allowed), and any colored or print long-sleeved western shirt or blouse are required. Optional: gloves, ties, chaps, vests, jackets, and spurs.

H. Ranch Horse Dress Code: Colorado 4-H Horse Show Rule Book Ranch Horse Division Tack and Attire Code (See Section #300 – Tack and Attire) will be followed. In summary, rider shall wear western style clothing that is well fitted and work-like in appearance. Shirts must be long sleeved, full length, long pants, western riding boots, belt, and cowboy hat (or helmet). Optional: gloves, ties, chaps, chinks, vests, jackets, raincoat, scarf, or safety helmet with harness.

I. Cannot enter in showmanship twice. First year horse showmen can choose to show in the Novice division or in their respective age division, but not both.

J. Show order will be by class number, beginning with the smallest number progressing to the highest number. Showmanship, ranch conformation, and halter classes will show Thursday, July 29, western performance classes will show Friday, July 30, and Ranch Horse performance classes, Saturday, July 31. Exception: Written Tests (class #44-47) will be taken prior to fair week at a date & time specified by Department Superintendents.

K. While on the Kit Carson County Fairgrounds horses exhibited in the youth horse show may be trained, fitted and dressed for show competition only by the exhibitor with the aid of the exhibitor's family or 4-H club leader(s)/ FFA chapter advisor.

L. The Kit Carson County Fair management may, at its discretion, expel any person or persons abusing any horse on the fairgrounds at any time. All prizes will be forfeited, and appropriate disciplinary action taken.

M. Exhibitor must have had the responsibility for the management, care and training of the horse during the club year. All horses must have lease agreement, proof of ownership/and or registration papers in exhibitor's name by May 1.

N. Ownership is not required in horse classes, but the exhibitor must have had the major responsibility for the management, care, and training of the horse during the club year. All horses must be registered with the extension office in the exhibitor's name by May 1 of the current year.

O. No horse will be shown at fair by more than one exhibitor.

P. Exhibitors, parents, and leaders must request permission from department superintendent(s) to approach a judge for any reason. Under no circumstance may an exhibitor, parent, leader, or spectator badger, insult or be argumentative with the judge, show secretary, ring steward, show management, or department superintendent(s). Any flagrant display of poor sportsmanship or affront to the judge, ring steward, show officials/staff, or department superintendent(s) by or on behalf of the exhibitor, leader or parent may result in exclusion of the exhibitor from competition and forfeiture of awards and/or expulsion from the show grounds for the person and/or exhibitor. Refer to Show Rules and Requirements (Section 20, Page 4) of the 4-H Code of Conduct.

Q. Exhibitors will be disqualified and excused from the grounds for any unsportsmanlike conduct or abusive action. This is at the discretion of the department superintendent(s). Mounts must be under control at all times and handled in a safe manner. Any exhibitor not adhering to the above rules will be disqualified. All prizes will be forfeited.

R. In order to participate in Riding Classes at fair, contestants must hold, at minimum, the Level 1 Card in their respective division (i.e. you must have Level 1 Western card to participate in Western Performance classes. You must have Level 1 Ranch Horse Card to participate in Ranch Horse Division classes.)

S. Only one horse per exhibitor allowed to be shown in Ranch Horse Conformation class.

Note: In the Novice classes no points will be awarded toward overall horse or overall horseman; only in their specific division. First year horse exhibitors have the option to compete as Novice their first year showing horse OR in their respective age division.
